

AVAILABILITY

This optional rate schedule is available to all residential consumers, and to schools, churches, and community halls requiring single-phase service in individual locations, and individually metered apartments. The Winter monthly charges are applicable during the months of October through April, and may be selected at the consumer's request. This rate will be effective for the first billing period following the consumer's request for the rate. If the consumer chooses to select a different available rate schedule, the selected rate will be effective for the first billing period following the consumer's request.

APPLICABILITY

This rate is not applicable for resale, breakdown, standby or auxiliary service.

DESCRIPTION

This rate has two parts: a monthly service availability charge and an energy charge. Energy charges are based on how much energy (kWh) is used during the month. The service availability charge and the energy charge will vary by Winter and Summer seasons. The rate does not include a demand charge based on how much energy is used at one time.

TIME PERIODS

Winter: Applies to the months of October through April. The energy charge will vary by the time of day that the energy is used (On-Peak or Off-Peak). On-Peak time period for this rate schedule is 6:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Monday through Saturday. All other hours are Off-Peak hours.

Summer: Applies to the months of May through September. The energy charge is based on how much energy (kWh) is used during the month.

MONTHLY CHARGES

	Summer	Winter
Service Availability Charge	$31.00	$37.50
